Our Company Cannabis Rules

Introduction text for the handbook that explains the purpose of these rules.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.

Hand washing

Wash hands before entering the production area and after breaks, meals and restroom use.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.

Visitors

All visitors sign in at reception and are escorted at all times while inside the building.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.

Product labels

Every product label shows the batch number and the potency of the product.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.
Supervisors check this every shift and record any problem in the log book for review.